VENICE DESIGN, the largest Design exhibition running alongside La Biennale di Venezia, from 13th of May to 26th of November 2017 is honoured and pleased to host the exhibition "NO TASTE FOR BAD TASTE so Starck, so Bouroullec ... so Le French Design".

Created by the VIA in collaboration with the Institut français to mark 40 years of dedication to design, the nomadic exhibition "NO TASTE FOR BAD TASTE" proposes a selection of 40 iconic pieces from the best French designers. Embodying the 10 essential values of French design, these masterpieces showcased within a unique and poetic scenography of Jean-Charles de Castelbajac will be presented from 21st of June to 20th of August 2017 in Palazzo Rossini. After its stop in Venice, "NO TASTE FOR BAD TASTE" will travel all over the world to highlight the excellence of French art de vivre.

VENICE DESIGN 2017 intends to give a glimpse of the multiple visions of contemporary international designers and is a testimony as well as evidence of the current design scene. For its second consecutive year, the exhibition will be hosted by the European Cultural Centre in the historical location of Palazzo Michiel in the very heart of Venice. Over 80 designers from 30 different countries and of various cultural backgrounds will present their creations and approaches. Each design represents a keen research to be ultimately accomplished by the production of an item. Each piece is here to raise interest and curiosity towards the role of design in our lives. This year in its two palazzos, VENICE DESIGN is an ambassador of international designs; while Palazzo Michiel proclaims a global vision on design, Palazzo Rossini hosts the excellence of French art of living.
